Battle Ship Texas.

Work on the Vessel Still Going Ahead.

THE OPINION OF EXPERTS.

Changes in the Original Plan Necessary Before the Ship Will Be Used at War—Improvements to Be Made at the White House—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—From the fact that the navy department has issued proposals for steel plates for the battle ship Texas, now being built at Norfolk, it would seem that the department intends to go ahead with the work, notwithstanding criticism and reports of a serious defect in the original design, and assertions that the hull of the vessel would have to be lengthened in order to give greater displacement, or else the ship would not float when launched.

Assistant Naval Constructor Bowles, who is in charge of the ship, submitted a long report to Secretary Whitney a few weeks before that official went on office, claiming that with some slight modifications the ship would be all right. The ex-secretary evidently agreed with him, for an order was made that the work should go on. When Secretary Tracy came into office he wanted fuller information before allowing the work to proceed. Constructor Bowles came to Washington and had a long interview with the secretary and went back to Norfolk with the assurance. It is stated that the work would be resumed.

In the meantime the bureau of construction and repair had been carefully going over the original plans and those submitted by Constructor Bowles. It is understood that the report of Chief Naval Constructor Wilson, which is quite voluminous, goes into the details with exactness, and gives a true and correct criticism of the ship as originally planned, and of her ability to float if built upon those lines. Naval Constructor Wilson is a practical ship builder, and his views undoubtedly will have great weight with Secretary Tracy.

The gossip in official circles is that Chief Constructor Wilson has handled the report of Mr. Bowles with great severity, and pointed out by facts and figures the utter impossibility of constructing the ship upon such plans. The proposals for the steel plates for the ship, however, would naturally suggest that the ship would be finished upon the original plans, but those in a position to know say that the few tens of plates advertised for would be but a drop in the bucket when compared to the changes that are soon to come.

Improvements in the White House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A bill to provide for the extension of the White House, with view to giving the family of the president more room for domestic purposes, will probably be introduced by Senator Cameron this winter. At least he has signified his intention to do so unless somebody has a bill to propose that may be more desirable than his own idea on the subject. Senator Cameron's idea for an improvement is a general one. He has nothing to offer in the way of detail. His proposition is to extend the executive mansion by wings built to the east and west, much in the same manner that the capitol building was enlarged by the addition of the house and senate extensions.

The White House as it stands is clothed with too many circumstances of historical interest to permit of its demolition or any radical alterations that would destroy the original. It has been the home of every president except Washington, and the corner stone was laid by him.

Senator Cameron's idea is to leave it as is, and increase the accommodations by the extensions stated. He wants the plan for the wing to be used by the family to be designed after ideas agreeable to Mrs. Harrison. As a woman with experience in housekeeping under difficulties, she will, he thinks, know what is needed better than a man.

Funeral of General West.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The funeral of Gen. T. L. West, who died at Ashbury Park, last Wednesday, took place from the Langham house Sunday afternoon. Gens. Rosecrans and Mussey, Col. Hepburn and Capt. Wallace, both old army comrades of the deceased, acted as pallbearers. A large number of friends and acquaintances attended the funeral and the remains were taken to their last resting place in Arlington National Cemetery.

A Sentence Not Enforced.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The sentence of Commander Harrington to two years suspension for running the Constellation ashore has not been acted upon by the navy department, despite all reports to the contrary. The delay of Secretary Tracy is looked upon favorably by the friends of Commander Harrington, some of whom assert that the sentence will be mitigated if not wiped out altogether.

Seizure of British Vessel Unjustifiable.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 19.—Mr. Bordell, minister of customs, yesterday received the expected official reports of the seizure of the British vessels in the north Pacific by United States cruisers and revenue cutters for alleged violations of United States laws in United States waters. These papers, it is understood, show that such seizures, as far as they relate to ships registered in Canadian ports, were effected outside of the marine jurisdiction of the United States, and are therefore unjustifiable and entitle the owners and crews to compensation for any loss that may have been suffered.

FIRE AT CHAUTAUQUA.

Curiosity Store, Book Store and Three Boarding Houses Burned.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 19.—At about 11 o'clock Saturday night the fire was discovered in the curiosity store of H. D. Hill, on the assembly grounds at Chautauqua. The fire spread to H. Hollis' book store, and from there to three cottages owned by the assembly, and conducted as boarding houses by Mrs. G. R. Wilson. The buildings were all old and burned like tinder. The firemen were obliged to devote their attention to adjoining dwellings, which they were enabled to do there being no wind. The losses are: H. D. Hill, $800; Professor H. Samuels, optical goods, $500; H. Hollis, $4,000; S. Finkelman, oriental goods, $200; Mrs. Wilson, $2,000.

The houses were full of boarders, most of whom saved their personal effects, but Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Peutz each lost a gold watch, and Professor Samuels lost a gold watch and $150 in money which he had in his vest pocket. The loss to the assembly is about $4,900.

WITH ARBOLIC ACID.

The Means Taken By Mrs. Crist to End Her Earthly Career.

LIMA, O., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Brenton Crist suicided Saturday by taking a large dose of carbolic acid. The Crisis on a farm about seven miles east of this city, and are wealthy. Some time ago they adopted Ella Hardin, whom the neighbors claimed they treated cruelly, and Friday, John Leatherman succeeded in getting her away and secreting her, and when Crist went for her Leatherman opened fire on him with a shotgun and drove him away.

Crist went home, and securing his gun, laid in ambush for Leatherman, and during his absence Mrs. Crist swallowed the acid. She died after suffering terrible agony. There is great feeling in that vicinity over the affair, and Crist, who is a determined man, vows that he will kill Leatherman on sight. This community is about equally divided on the matter.

Extensive Preparations Being Made for the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The order of Rebekahs will also be in session and this meeting will attract many ladies. The drills of the uniformed divisions for which prizes are offered, $7,000 will be offered, will be an important feature of the meeting. It is expected that several cities will make an effort to have the Sovereign Grand Lodge removed from Columbus.

Another Opening for the South.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 19.—An impromptu demonstration occurred at Huntsville Saturday, the occasion being the breaking of ground for the line of Cincinnati, Alabama and Atlantic railway. The line will run from Cincinnati due south to Huntsville, Ala., and then deflect either to Birmingham or Savannah. It is said that bonds to push this line through have been negotiated.

A Celebration Drawn in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The body of Commander Harrington to two years suspension for running the Constellation ashore has not been acted upon by the navy department, despite all reports to the contrary. The delay of Secretary Tracy is looked upon favorably by the friends of Commander Harrington, some of whom assert that the sentence will be mitigated if not wiped out altogether.

Perry, the aeromont, who sustained severe injuries by falling from a balloon 700 feet high at Mount Holly fair, near Charlotte, ten days ago, died last night from internal injuries. China and Japan.

Latest News Received By Ocean Steamer.

DETAILS OF THE EARTHQUAKE.

Instead of Three Thousand Lives Being Lost the Number Now is Reduced to Only Thirty—Extent of the Floods in Japan—Rioters Rooted By Soldiers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The steamer City of Sydney, from Hong Kong and Yokohama, which arrived yesterday evening, was the first to bring details of the earthquake at Kumamoto, the first news of which was cabled July 30. One cablegram gave the loss of life at 3,000, while another states that almost the entire town of Kumamoto with a population of 38,000 was destroyed. Full details had not been received when the City of Sydney left Yokohama, but the newspapers of that city of Aug. 2 indicate no such loss as given by the cablegrams. Several late telegrams to Yokohama gave the loss at twenty to thirty killed.

The Japanese newspaper Jiji Shimpou, however, says that by a great earthquake at Kumamoto on July 28 many hills have been rent, houses demolished, people killed and wounded in the city, independent of the surrounding villages. Another shock has been felt and the inhabitants are fearing further disaster. The people have been seized with superstition on account of the hills being broken open.

EXACT OF THE FLOOD IN JAPAN.

The floods having subsided in the various districts of Japan, fairly accurate estimates of the damage done are obtained. Nine hundred and thirty houses were destroyed by being washed away or broken up by colliding together. Forty-one persons are known to have lost their lives.

Rioters' Revenge.

The Overland China Mail learns on July 6 that the rioters in Fushun province of China had fled before the approaching troops. Before leaving however, they burned their boats. The attack on the Chin Chin villages is continued.

For the loss of four or five of their compatriots last year the rioters revenged themselves by slaughtering between four and five hundred inhabitants of Chin Chin villages, including women and children.

FOREST FIRES IN MONTANA.

Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 19.—Forest fires, which have been raging all over Montana for three weeks, have destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of timber, and have reached most alarming proportions. A gentleman from northern Montana reports that ranges in Chouteau county, which heretofore have escaped, and on which cattle were depending to keep this winter thousands of head of cattle, are on fire, and all the big companies have their men out trying to suppress the flames. In two days the fire traveled over a section of sixty miles wide and one hundred miles in length.

DEER LODGE county, the town of Georgetown is surrounded by fire and a strong wind brought the flames within five miles of Philipsburg. The mill of the Bimetallic Mining company near that town is in great danger and the fire is traveling toward it with great rapidity. Couriers who arrived at Philipsburg from Georgetown at midnight, reported that the utmost consternation prevailed in the town, and a large force was organized to go to the rescue.

In the Yellowstone country the pines cover an area of eight miles and is spreading rapidly. Ranges in that section have also been almost entirely destroyed, the fire extending nearly from Miles City to Glendive.

A letter just received from Forsythe says that Henry Casey, J. P. Harrison and two cowboys, recently from Texas, who were out fighting the fire in that vicinity, are missing, and it is feared they have perished.

JUSTICE FIELD'S ARREST.

Chief Justice Fuller Expresses His Opinion on the Affairs.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19.—Chief Justice Fuller passed through Pittsburgh or the "limited" last night from Crosscut Springs, Pa., where he left his two daughters, on his way to Chicago. When asked about the killing of ex-Judge Terry, he said: "I had heard that Terry had uttered threats against Justice Field, but I did not know of them personally. I was surprised when I heard that Justice Field had been arrested. I cannot see what he had to do with the murder any more than any other spectator. Judge Sawyer has issued a habeas corpus and Justice Field will no doubt be released."

He said Justice Field was a man not to be deterred by threats, but would do his duty under all circumstances.

ON ON A WEEK'S TOUR.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The Thirteenth regiment National Guards State of New York left last night for a week's tour in the west. They go first to Cleveland, and thence to Hamilton, Ont., where they will take part in the carnival parade next Friday, leaving for home the next day.

MILLS SHUT DOWN.

NORWICH, Conn., Aug. 19.—The Unionville mills in Montville have shut down, owing to financial embarrassment. About 250 men are thrown out of work.

PROTECTING THEIR HOMES.

A Would-Be Ravisher Hung by a Mob at Pooler, Georgia.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 19.—Walter Asbury, colored, alias Bertie, was lynched at Pooler, ten miles west of here early Sunday morning, for an assault upon Luhi Kissman, a 17-year-old German girl, Saturday afternoon. The assault was made upon the girl at her home in the center of the town while the family was away. She was terribly beaten in a struggle with her assailant, but she successfully resisted him. Her clothing was torn from her body, her face terribly beaten and gashed and one eye was closed. The fingerprints of the negro were left on her neck, and her cheeks were torn and bleeding. Her neck was so wrenched that she was unable to turn her head. The struggle must have lasted several minutes. The floor and furniture were covered with blood, and the girl's hands were bloody from the struggle. Her cries attracted a colored man who was near by and who rescued her from her assailant's clutches.

Asbury sprang through a door and escaped, but in the next house he knocked a woman down, seized a double-barrel shot gun and fled to the woods. In an hour the whole town was in arms, and a mounted posse started in pursuit. About midnight, about a mile from the scene of the assault, he was found at a low dance, about a mile from the girl's house and she identified him as her assailant. His clothes were covered with blood from the encounter with the girl. He confessed the crime and begged for mercy. Three hundred masked men hurried him to an open field, where he was strung up to a tree and his body riddled with bullets. Across his body was pinned a paper with the inscription: "This is the way we protect our homes." The body was left hanging and was cut down by the coroner. The lynching party was so strong that the authorities were unable to take Asbury from them.

THE GAS WAS TURNED ON.

An Actress Narrow Escape from Death in a Chinese Hotel.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Miss Mattie Hornby, one of the members of the "Bluebeard, Jr." company, who rooms alone at the Commercial hotel, was found lying unconscious on the floor of her room yesterday afternoon with a full flow of gas escaping from the burner and the room full of the deadly vapor. Miss Hornby was with great difficulty revived, and cared for by the other members of the company.

She said that she had eaten a late supper after the theater, and on retiring supposed she had turned on the gas as usual, though she now thinks that instead of that she opened one burner in endeavoring to close another. Finally, after sleeping a while the fumes awakened her and she attempted to reach the door, but fell on the floor and was unable to rise. She had no idea how long she lay on the floor, but it was 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the chambermaid, unable to effect an entrance to the room, called the housekeeper, who, opening the door with a pass key, found Miss Hornby lying unconscious.

ILLNESS OF CONGRESSMAN RANDALL.

His Physician Thinks He Will be About in a Few Days.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—Congressman J. Randall has been confined to his bed at his home at Wallingford for nearly a week by an attack of rheumatism. Dr. Robert Martin, the family physician, was summoned and he has been making a daily trip to Wallingford ever since to see Mr. Randall. Yesterday morning Mr. Randall was feeling much better. He got up and took breakfast with his family for the first time since last Wednesday. He was not permitted to remain down stairs all day, however, and shortly after noon he went to bed again.

When asked about Mr. Randall's condition, Dr. Martin said: "He is much stronger and will soon be moving around again. This attack of rheumatism was rather severe, but I think he has passed the crisis, and that he will soon be free from pain. He will be on his feet again in a few days.

ATTEMPTED TRAIN WRECKING.

A Hand-Car Prevents the Disaster, Altho Three Men Are Injured.

ELNOBA, Ind., Aug. 19.—A most atrocious attempt at train wrecking was attempted Saturday on the New Evansville and Richmond railway, between here and Odon. Obstructions in the shape of heavy railroad iron were piled upon the track. The wreckers would have accomplished their purpose but for the fact that

The "elixir of life" is apt to prove the elixir of death in most cases.

JUDGE M. M. CASSIDY, of Mt. Sterling, has announced himself a candidate for delegate from Montgomery County to the constitutional convention. He is early in the field.

LET the Democratic party resolve to choose one hundred honest men to make the new Constitution, and as all of them cannot be able men, let us have as many of that sort as can be obtained.—Louisville Times.

It all goes to show that, when well shaken before using, the Democratic majority of Kentucky is very effective remedy for Republican boastfulness. And the Democratic press did the shaking.—Owensboro Enquirer.

THE family row in the Ohio Republican household over the U. S. Senatorial will be exceeding lively. It looks like Halstead will have a very hard time in getting there, if indeed, he succeeds at all. Defeat in this race will end him politically.

Goo streets for the city; good roads for the State; these mark the stage of a people's progress. The next Legislature can do no better work than provide a system by which good roads can be provided in every section of Kentucky during the next ten years.—Courier-Journal.

THE Louisville Times says: "The administration has laid down the law that public office is a family affair, and the Feland family seems bent on holding Lawyer Jolly to the rule, and as Mr. Jolly is mortgaged to the lips, there is every indication that Feland the Younger is going to file a bill of foreclosure."

JOHN HERNDON, traveling salesman for the Louisville publishing house of the Bradley & Gilbert Co., announces himself a candidate for Public Printer. Mr. Herndon is as popular here as he is elsewhere in the State, but if he gets away with Colonel Polk Johnson he will have to hustle. The press is solid for Johnson for any office he wants.

THE Virginia Democrats have placed an excellent ticket in the field, and are ready for what promises to be one of the hottest political contests in their history. They will have not only the Virginia Republicans to fight this time, but the national administration at Washington City. It is reported the Republicans, in hopes of breaking the "solid South," will resort to the means that carried them though last fall, and will expend $1,000,000 in corrupting the voters of the "Old Dominion" at the approaching election.

Strikes, lockouts and cut-downs! Such is the burden of news reports from nearly all the industrial centers of the country. Meantime the formation of the trusts goes right along, and additional tribute is being levied daily by monopoly on the laborers and mechanics whose wages are being reduced. As that is what the laborers and mechanics voted for last fall, however, we suppose they are happy. If they are not, the Carnegies, Corbinis, Goulds and Vanderbilts ought to be exchanged.

THE New York Evening Post tells a story that illustrates the hypocritical snuffing of the Republicans about the "equality of the negro." Nowhere do they put their professions into practice, except in the matter of voting, and then only because he votes the Republican ticket. Rev. J. T. Robinson, a Baptist preacher of good character, went with Rev. F. D. Penny, pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Auburn, N. Y., to a barber shop in that city, where Rev. Robinson asked to be shaved. He was refused, and met the same rebuff at several other shops, although a dollar was offered for a shave, and chairs were vacant and barbers idle in every shop visited. The reason was that both men were black, and the barbers would have lost their white trade if they admitted them to the privileges of customers. Auburn gave Harrison about 1,000 majority last fall in a vote of 5,000. The "negro problem" seems to be as much of a problem in the North as in the South.

Here is a timely bit of advice: Do not forget to give the baby (no matter how young) a drink of water now and then. Mothers never think of doing this, and all the time the little thing is actually suffering for the want of water. Just a few drops in a spoon will do at first; nothing will satisfy child until it gets it. Some years ago I heard of a case where the child was sick. The mother sent for the doctor. He came, and after examining it carefully, said: "The child is dying for the lack of water. Bring me some and I'll show you." The result proved that he was right. All the mother said was: "I didn't know babies needed water."—Albany Express.

Railway News.

The wagon and footways of the C. & O. bridge at Cincinnati were thrown open to the public Friday.

At the end of 1888, according to advance sheets of Poor's Manual for 1889, the aggregate length of all lines in this country was 156,082 miles, all built in sixty years, the average mileage per year being nearly 2,600.

There is scarcely any demand for locomotives. The locomotive establishments of the country can build about 3,000 annually, but at present the railroads are buying about 1,000. A locomotive can now be bought for $8,000, or less than the cost of building, but it pays the shops to run even at a moderate loss instead of standing idle. The manufacturers say the railroads are five years ahead of the country; that is, that it will take five years for the country to grow sufficiently to give all the railroads now built enough business to make them pay.

The entire value of a good newspaper is rarely estimated by the average reader. One looks upon it simply as the chronicle of passing events. Another looks upon it as the exponent or defender of a cherished idea, with which he is in sympathy. The newspaper is more than this; it is conducive to morality, honesty and the general welfare of the community in which it is issued. Many little peccadilloes are nipped in the bud by the wholesome dread of exposure through the newspaper. Men are more circumspect when they know that the argus eye of the reporter or local editor is upon them. Thieves dread and hate the newspapers, because all their schemes and modus operandi are laid bare before the public eye. The newspaper is looked upon by the criminal classes of the community as the lighthouse is viewed by the wrecker, while it continues to illuminate, their occupation is jeopardized.—Press and Printer.

A nine composed of players from Mayfield and Lewisburg, came to Thursday night to play at Washington Base Ball Club. Up to the latter half of the ninth inning it seemed as if the visitors had a clinch on the game, the score standing 25 to 2 in their favor, but, at that stage the home boys fought their batting clothes and filled up 21 runs in short order, when the pitcher for the Mayfield's suddenly discovered that his arm was "out of place" (although he was pitching harder than he had done during the game) and decided to have a substitute. Washington's insisted on another, who could be made during the inning, whereupon the visiting club rallied from the field, and the game was given to the Washington club by the umpire, by a score of four to nothing. It looks as if some of the boys ought to learn the rules before they play again.

THE "ELIXIR OF LIFE."

Frightful Results of Experiments by Cincinnati Physicians

A special from Cincinnati says: "The doctors have decided that the man Steele, named in recent telegrams, has blood poison. He has sued for $5,000 damages. Fielden, the first man experimented on, and whose wonderful cure was telegraphed broadcast, is in bed again. Great lumps have appeared where the incisions were made, and he is delirious. Dr. Longfellow, who made the experiment, in a published statement says he has lost faith in the elixir, and a local paper paid for all the experiments for the first news. Dr. Langenbeck, the chemist who prepares nine-tenths of all the elixir used here, says it is dangerous if used after an hour, and rank poison after two hours. The scare amounts to a craze. There are reports that the work-house physicians have experimented indiscriminately with frightful results."

VISITORS to the fair this week are invited to make themselves at home at the Bee Hive. Read Rosenau Bros' advertisement.

AT Falmouth Saturday, Minor Martin accused C. Ingalls, colored, of stealing chickens and in the quarrel that followed he fired the contents of a shot-gun into the negro's back. Over 100 shot were picked out of the wounded man, who will recover.

ROBERT WARING, a well-known and wealthy citizen of Newport, was married at Louisville to Miss Mary A. Young. Mr. Waring is in his 63d year and the bride is about 50. Miss Young, who has been Mr. Waring's housekeeper for two or three years, is his third wife.

WHITE received a letter this morning from the New York Herald, stating that the British bark Gartmore arrived at Iquique, South America, on the 19th of July, where she was still anchored at last account. The Gartmore is the vessel on which Messrs. Ernie White and Lee Haucke shipped at Astoria, Oregon, a few months ago, since which nothing has been heard from them.

MR. HAYES THOMAS, of Fern Leaf, is among the Mason Countians on a pleasure trip at Old Point Comfort and other places in the East. He took his first plunge into the briny surf last Friday at the Point. He was "somewhat shy" at first in making his appearance in a bathing costume before the hundreds of fair visitors at the beach, but when he once struck the water he was as much "in the swim" as any of the crowd and enjoyed the sport immensely.

The heavy fog yesterday morning and the low water delayed the Boston, and it was 10 o'clock last night before she reached this point. It has been a long while since she was so far behind time.

GEORGE W. PECK thus turns himself loose on early marriages: "Nine-tenths of the unhappy marriages are the result of green human calves being allowed to run at large in society pastures without a yoke on them. They marry and have children before they are 20 years old. They are fathers of twins before they are the proprietors of two pairs of pants, and the little girls they marry are old women before they are twenty years old. Occasionally one of these gosling marriages turn out all right, but it is a clear case of luck. If there was a law against young galoots marrying before they cut all their teeth, we suppose they would evade it in some way. But there ought to be a sentiment against it. It is time enough for these bantams to think of finding a pullet when they have raised money enough to build a hen house. But they see a girl who looks cunning and they are afraid there isn't going to be enough to go around, and they begin to spark real spry, and before they are aware of the sanctity of the marriage relations they are bitched for life, and before they can own a cook stove or a bedstead they have to get up in the night and go after the doctor so frightened that they run themselves out of breath and abuse the doctor because he does not run too. And when the doctor does get there, there is not enough linen in the house to wrap up the 'baby.'"

SYDNEY K. SMITH, an attorney of St. Louis and son of the late Colonel D. Howard Smith, is preparing a work on the life, army record and public services of his father. It will not be merely a personal memoir of Colonel Smith, but a brief history of Morgan's command from the time of his connection with it to the close of the war, and of events subsequent to the war. It will contain many new, interesting and valuable facts which come under Colonel Smith's own personal observation, and from other authentic sources, both Federal and Confederate. Mr. Smith is said to be a scholar and writer of ability, and with these facts in his possession and other data, he should make a valuable contribution to the history of the war. Colonel Smith died a comparatively poor man, leaving a large family, mostly daughters. The proceeds of the sale of this work will be contributed to their support. A limited number of copies will be printed, and it will therefore be necessary for all who wish to secure a copy to subscribe for it in advance. This may be done by calling on or addressing Mrs. G. S. Tarleton, 604 West Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

THE Courier-Journal has boiled all that queer relationship down to this: "By the marriage of Albert Phillips, aged fifty-six years, to Miss Ella Clayton, aged fourteen, at Eatontown, N. J., recently, the bride became her father's step-mother-in-law, her own granddaughter and the grandmother of herself. Phillips' daughter, who married the bride's father, also sustains the same relationship to her father and to herself, while the two men are fathers-in-law to each other."

REV. J. A. HENDERSON, of Richmond, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church, South, here, was descending the steps at his residence the other night, when he made a mis-step and fell heavily upon his shoulder, dislocating it. In this condition it remained all night, adding to the great suffering he has since endured. The Doctor was just recovering from a fall he received some days before in a runaway."

THE Maysville Board of Underwriters has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. J. T. Fleming.
Vice President—R. H. Newell.
Treasurer—G. S. Judd.

A Subject of Charity.

The Prince of Wales in the Role of a Pauper.

ROYALTY WITHOUT MONEY

One Person, With More Money Than Brains, Comes to His Rescue—The Alliance Between Germany and Austria Strengthened—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—If the queen and her royal offspring have been very much put out over the shameful way in which the Radicals opposed their modest request for more money, the Prince of Wales at least has something with which to soothe his irritated feelings, as a direct outcome of the agitation instituted by the Radical members of parliament and their supporters.

The prince has received an anonymous letter in which the writer deplores the inconsiderate conduct of the disloyal Radicals, sympathizes with his royal highness in the unpleasant position in which their agitation pained him, and last, but by no means least, he gives a proof of his sincerity by enclosing ten crisp new Bank of England notes, each of the denomination of £1,000. No name is signed to the communication and the writer has been at such pains to avoid leaving any clue to his identity that no one is prepared even to guess who he can be. The prince himself has no suspicion of any one, but in any event it is not likely that the police will be asked to interfere to drag this modest specimen of British loyalty from his anonymous retreat.

Boulangier Defends Himself.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Frenchmen residing in London, to the number of 500, called upon Gen. Boulangier at his residence yesterday, and presented him with an address of sympathy and confidence. In replying to their spokesman he entered into the matter of his trial and conviction by the French senate, and took occasion to deny the charges upon which he was tried. He said he had never, on any occasion, made use of funds belonging to the state, except while trying to compass the safety of France, when attacked by enemies. If they had been cited to appear before any regular court in France to make answer to these outrageous charges, he and his colleagues would have insisted to take the first steamer for France. But such a course would not suit the nefarious purposes of those who, for the moment, were usurping the power of the republic. They formed a tribunal composed of his personal and political enemies and the enemies of his colleagues, by which all were virtually condemned before it met. Of Frenchmen, he said, he only asked that he be treated with fairness, and the triumph of their present rulers, of which they boasted so loudly at present, would soon be a thing of the past.

Champion of Dr. Peters.

LONDON, Aug. 19. The Cologne Gazette has set itself up as the special champion of Dr. Peters, the African explorer, whose vessel was recently seized by the British Admiral Fremantle. In this position The Gazette stands almost alone, the German press quite generally taking grounds against the doctor and his scheme, the more especially since the emperor's visit to England has so much improved the relations between the two people.

The Gazette says very boldly that the chancellor's organ, The North German Gazette, is opposing Dr. Peters only because that gentleman's personal relations with Bismarck are not pleasant. It holds as ridiculous that paper's assertion that Emin's province is within the sphere of British rights in Africa, and insists that it belongs to Emin to do with and dispose of as he sees fit. The Gazette is very bitter at Dr. Peters' desertion by his countrymen at the belief of England.

Critical Stage of a Strike.

LONDON, Aug. 19. The strike of the London dock laborers, which has been in progress for some time, has reached a critical stage, and one side or the other must yield within a few days. The men have so thoroughly perfected their organization that their employes find it impossible to fill their places, and on many of the London docks work has been entirely suspended. Especially is this the case at the West India docks where some vessels have been lying for a week unable to load or unload. The stevedores held a meeting Saturday night and unanimously passed a resolution declaring they would not yield.

Alliance Between Germany and Austria.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—It is reported from Berlin that the conferences there, in which the two emperors and their ministers have taken part, have resulted in a very material modification of the alliance existing between Germany and Austria. Heretofore the treaty between the two powers provided for joint action only in case either was attacked. The alteration just effected in the treaty makes it obligatory upon either power to come to the assistance of the other, when its vital interests are menaced. This modification is a marked strengthening of the existing alliance.

Don't Want Him.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—La Nation says France never intended making a demand for the extradition of Gen. Boulangier.

Paul at Home.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—Madam Adelina Patti has arrived at Southampton, and proceeded to Craiz-Y-Nos, her castle in Wales.

Sarah Bernhardt's Husband Dead.

PARIS, Aug. 19.—M. Dammala, the husband of Sarah Bernhardt, is dead of cerebral congestion. He was 33 years old.

NAPA, Calif., Aug. 19.—At the fair grounds Saturday Gold Leaf, a 4-year-old, paced a mile with a running mate in 2:14. The time by quarters was 32. 1:05, 1:39.

KILLED IN A SALOON QUARREL.

WILKESBARR, Pa., Aug. 19.—During a quarrel in a saloon at Pittston last night, Edward Tates struck Thomas Snell in the neck, killing him to the floor. Snell died a moment later, his neck having been broken. He was a well known resident of Pittston. Tates is under arrest.

ANOTHER TRIAL OF THE CHARLESTON.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 19.—The new cruiser Charleston was given a trial run in the bay Saturday afternoon. No government officials were aboard, and the trial was simply to test some alterations which had been made in her machinery since the official trial trip three months ago. There was no attempt to develop maximum horse power or high rate of speed. It is understood the builders consider the trial satisfactory.

AN ELECTRIC CAR ACCIDENT.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 19.—The motor on an electric car was "short circuited" last night, and the frightened passengers in jumping from the car were more or less injured. Joseph Ferris and a man supposed to be William Anderson, of Philadelphia, were badly hurt, the latter probably fatally.

A MEETING OF COTTON EXCHANGES.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 19.—The directors of the Cotton Exchange have invited all exchanges and boards of trade to send delegates to a convention of cotton interests, to be held here Sept. 11, to agree upon a uniform method of adjusting the difference in tare between cotton and jute bagging. The proposition is that from a certain date all cotton shall be sold by net weight, allowing 5 per cent. of the gross weight for jute and 3½ per cent. for cotton bagging.

SLUGGER SULLIVAN SENTENCED.

PURVIS, Miss., Aug. 19.—Judge Terrell has passed sentence on John L. Sullivan and John Fitzpatrick, the former the full extent of the law, twelve years in prison, and the latter let off with only a fine of $200. An appeal was taken in both cases, the prisoners being released on $1,000 bond.

STANDING ALONE.

O little white feet, stirring bravely To mark out a path of your own, You're learning the lesson so early Of trying to stand all alone.

A wondrous lesson, my darling, And harder for women than men, A lesson that must be repeated, Ah! over and over again.

Those tender white feet oft will stumble, Life's path is so rough, little one, You know not the rocks and the pitfalls That lie on the path just begun.

But we, from the years that have met us, Cry out as we think of the road, How gladly we'd shorten the distance, How gladly we'd lighten the load.

To arms now outstretched to protect you, How often in vain you will turn, And learning to do without them Is the hardest of all to learn.

O, little white feet, made for kisses, You often will ache 'neath your load, You will weary count each milestone, And long for the end of the road.

The way will seem long, little traveler, Till the sun sinks down in the west, But 'twill bring you at last, my darling, To the beautiful rest.

A Curious Chemical.

A new substance, singular alike in its chemical nature and in its properties, has been discovered by M. Pecharat. It is a mixed acid derived from oxalic and molybdic acids, and is, therefore, termed "oxalomolybdic acid." The crystals of oxalomolybdic acid, when dry, may be preserved unchanged either in sunshine or in the dark; but if moist, they quickly become colored blue when exposed to the sun's rays. If characters be written on paper with the solution, they remain invisible in a weak light; but when exposed to sun shine, they rapidly become visible, turning to a deep indigo color. It is curious that this effect only happens when the solution is spread over paper or other surfaces; for the solution itself may be kept unaltered in the bottle for any length of time, except for a trace of blue at the edge of the meniscus, where, by surface action, a little is spread against the interior glass walls.

If a sheet of paper be immersed in a saturated solution of the acid, dried in the dark, and then exposed behind an ordinary photographic negative, a very sharp print in blue may be obtained by exposure to sunlight for about ten minutes. The color instantly disappears in contact with water; so that if a piece of this sensitized paper be wholly exposed to sunlight one may write in blue upon the blue ground by using a pen dipped in water. If, however, the paper with its blue markings be exposed to a gentle heat for a few minutes the blue changes to black, and the characters are then no longer destroyed by water.

A Wedding Ring's Advice.

For want of a little thought many a wedding ring has lost, as it were, the wearer's finger to the bone. Many a wedding ring has been heavier than a ton of lead. Men must make allowances for women as women, if they want to be happy themselves and to make allowances for men, and for men as men. They each have their own troubles and their own needs, and very often the one does not understand and cannot understand the needs of the other. Men have their own troubles and worries and women have theirs; let each be assured of that as regards the other and act accordingly. It will be appreciated—don't be afraid of that. Beware of niggardly, my dear.

The men that will stand being nagged at is saint, and saints are not as plentiful as blackberries in the world. There's more nagging, my dear, as well as female—male grumbling and never being pleased; and folks who expect to come out as "ducks" at the end of 120 years would, after eighty or ninety years' nagging, make a poor figure in a matrimonial poultry show. If the man has been grumbling and the woman nagging all this time they'd look like two moulting birds and not like two well established healthy fowl. Each to be the other's help, each the other's blessing; each to hope to be with the other for ever and ever, and so to live here that they may be fit for being together there. —Quiver.
